Required Documents and Proofs

- Itemized hospital bill with diagnosis codes, procedure codes, provider tax number, and paid/unpaid balance.
- Emergency physician report describing smoke exposure, ankle injury, dehydration, and treatment plan.
- Ambulance or medical transport run sheet showing medical necessity.
- Copy of civil authority evacuation order or emergency alert naming the affected zone.
- Proof of payment for prescriptions, inhaler replacement, crutches, and follow-up clinic visit.
- Lodging receipts, if claiming medical lodging rider, with note explaining why ordinary evacuation lodging was medically necessary.
- Other insurance disclosure, including school coverage, provincial plan, travel plan, or employer plan.

Reported Loss Narrative

The member states that the dependent twisted her ankle while leaving a reception centre after a wildfire evacuation. The ER chart also notes mild smoke inhalation, nausea, and anxiety symptoms. The claim was opened under the disaster-response workflow, but the provider bill was coded as "accidental fall" without reference to wildfire evacuation.

The family stayed four nights at Lakefield Suites after the evacuation. The first two nights may be ordinary displacement costs, while the last two nights are being reviewed under the temporary medical lodging rider because a clinic note advised against returning to heavy smoke conditions.

A pharmacy receipt shows replacement inhaler purchase on August 18, but the prescription profile shows the inhaler was eligible for refill on August 19. This may trigger a duplicate-fill or early-refill exception review.

Exclusions, Conditions, and Tricky Clauses

- Ordinary evacuation lodging, meals, fuel, lost wages, childcare, and pet boarding are not covered under this medical policy unless a specific medical rider applies.
- Treatment for anxiety, grief, or stress response is covered only under the mental health benefit and is subject to network and pre-authorization requirements after the first emergency session.
- Out-of-network providers may be reimbursed at usual and customary charges only; any excess balance may remain the member's responsibility.
- Experimental treatments, air purifiers, respirators, masks purchased for general prevention, and home remediation are excluded.
- Duplicate coverage rules may reduce payment if another plan, school accident policy, government program, or disaster relief fund is primary.

Confusing Legal / Insurance Language Excerpts

Coverage for disaster-related emergency medical expenses shall not be construed as coverage for all losses arising during, following, or in connection with a declared emergency. The covered expense must be medically necessary, ordered or rendered by a qualified provider, and directly connected to a covered sickness or accidental bodily injury, as distinguished from inconvenience, displacement, or precautionary evacuation.

Where a provider is not contracted with the plan, payment may be limited to the plan's recognized amount, usual and customary charge, reference-based price, or statutory fee schedule, whichever is less. Acceptance of a claim form or assignment of benefits does not require the plan to satisfy charges above the recognized amount.

The plan may request records from hospitals, pharmacies, emergency agencies, employers, schools, or other insurers for purposes of eligibility, coordination, fraud prevention, subrogation, and medical-necessity review. Failure to provide requested records may delay, suspend, or result in denial of benefits for the disputed expense only.

Important Flagged Issues for Test Extraction

Flagged issue a user might miss	Why it matters
Medical lodging is not ordinary evacuation lodging	Only nights tied to medical necessity may qualify; ordinary displacement costs are excluded.
Out-of-network balance bills may remain unpaid	The plan limit may not equal provider charges, leaving member responsibility.
Other-insurance disclosure could reduce payment	School accident coverage or government programs may be treated as primary or coordinating coverage.

Disaster Declaration Reference

Evacuation Zone W-14 is referenced by the member, but the file contains only a screenshot of an emergency alert. The plan requests the formal civil authority order or a municipal confirmation letter before applying the disaster-response claim code.
